GOOD DAY FOR FAVORITES

FIVE FIRST CHOICES WIN OVER WET TRACK AT AQUEDUCT.

Pretend Makes Auspicious Debut by Winning the Columbus Selling Stakes-Maskette Reported Coughing.

New York, May 9.—Five of the six first choices won at Aqueduct today, all of them being of the odds-on variety. The Columbus Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds, was the feature and went to Thomas Monaian's Pretend, in his first start of the season. The race was a good one, but was marred a bit by a claim of foul made by Jockey Shilling, who rode Eddie Dugan. Shilling made all the pace with his mount, but was caught by Pretend in the last furlong. At the time Pretend was rather close to Eddie Dugan, while on the rail. Shilling had ample room, but he tried the old trick of snatching up his mount when he found that he was beaten. There had been no interference and the claim was properly dismissed.

The condensed history of the Columbus Stakes is as follows:
Year. Winner. Wt. Jockey, Val. Time

1906 Yazd 106 W. Knapp. 990 1:482
1907 Campaigner 106 Jas. Henn sy. 1.160 1:49
1908 Arasse 98 Fulton 1.015 1:481
1909 Not run this year. 98 Fulton 1.015 1:482
1909 Not run this year. 106 G. Garner. 675 1:49
Run at 3-4 mile prior to 1906.
Rain in the early morning made the track heavy and just before the last race there came a heavy downpoar that converted it into sloppy going for the last race. Such conditions and the fact that the card was not particularly attractive, resulted in a small attendance, though brought up to the Monday standard by Pimlico arrivals. The mile and a sixteenth handicap saw the withdrawal of King James, which handicap saw the withdrawal of King James, celsior, but 8. C. Hildreth added Firestone, which rankette and Gny Fisher, the winner of the Excelsior, but 8. C. Hildreth added Firestone, which rankette and saw, In this race, H. P. Whitney's Dinna Ken, which raced the England last season, made his first start of the year. He was high in flesh and some distance from a good race, but he showed speed and is likely to come back later a good one.

OAKLAND FAVORITES AGAIN SUCCESSFUL.

San Francisco, Cal., May 9.—Favorites were again Saccessful at Oakland today. As was the case on Saturday, five first choices finished in front. A. Thomas, who leaves tonight for New York, marked his last day here by landing three winners. The only favorite to disappoint was Fern L., in the Alvarado Handicap. She did not get away as well as usual and, although she closed ground quickly, she was unable to pass Spohu, which was off advantageously. The well-backed Mollie Montrose, with Thomas up, ran away after being led to the post in the second race and Tramotor won easily from E. M. Fry, the pacethaker. Meltondale was plunged on in the fifth and romped home. Lord of the Forest proved an easy winner in the last race.

R. J. Farris was fined $100 by the stewards for abusing J. T. Strite when he claimed Thistle Belle Saturday, Mr. Farris today bought Goldfun from P. J. Lynch, W. Gabriel bought Hiacko and Tillinginast from R. S. Davidson and James F. Coburn purchased J. C. Clem.

Jockey Rooney was suspended for four days for misbehavior at the post in the second race.

The apprentice allowance of jockey Denny has expired.

W. O'B. Macdonough is making arrangements pired.

W. O'B, Macdonough is making arrangements through agents in London to have Ormondale shipped from Henry T. Oxnard's Virginia farm to some English breeding establishment the coming fall.

Flavigny will in future run in the colors of J. T. Strite.

VALUATION OF RACING PROPERTY RAISED.

New York, May 9.—Right on top of the passage of the bills aimed at racing in this state, the tax commissioners are preparing to sharply boost the realty valuations on three of the Long Island tracks—Sheepshead Bay, Brighton and Gravesend. In the case of the Sheepshead Bay track, the property of the Coney Island Jockey Club, the assessment has been increased from $1,200,000 to $2,000,000. Similar sharp advances have been made in the other tracks. Before formally adopting the new figures, the tax board will give a hearing to the properties affected.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE KENTUCKY DERBY

Western racing will be seen at its best today when the Kentucky Derby of 1910 reaches its point of decision. Apparently it is to be contested by a better class of three-year-olds than have fought out its thish for several years past. The unlucky injury of the crack Waldo detracts from its interest in some measure, but is compensated for by the resultant more open appearance of the race. Of what little of vestern racing remains in active existence the Kentucky Derby is now the foremost event and, under the circumstances, has regained the importance attached to it in the earliest years of its history. Then it was preeminently the star event of the western turf and even the eastern turfmen awaited its decision with impatience. Then it was what it should be teday, a dash of a mile and a half. It was at this distance that such grand racers of the long ago as Aristides, Day Star. Lord Murphy, Fonso, Hindoo, Leonatus, Ben Ali, Spokane, Riley and Halma triumphed gloriously and afterwards confirmed their high class on other needs of action. Ben Brush was its first winner at the reduced distance of a mile and a quarter and a great race horse he was and a great sire he is. Other noted race horses which have won in succession to Ben Brush were Typhoon II., Plaudit, Lieutenant Gibson, Allan-a-Dale, Agile and Sir Huon. Last year's winner, Wintergreen, may have been so endowed by nature as to rank with his predecessors, but lameness prevented his fully demonstrating it. He is reported to be sound now and a particularly grand-appearing young horse. The Derby of today will be witnessed by a great throng and its history is here shown:

received daily from the larger stables that have made the Canadian circuit their racing territory for the past few years.

The Dyment stable has shown a large entry in the stakes for two-year-olds. Probably the best is a brother to Star Wave, which was purchased as a yearling last fall. This colt has shown some fast trials this spring.

The track at Blue Bonnets this season will be even faster than it was a year ago, which is due to the course having been re-dressed late in the fall. The steeplechase course, which was sanded over at the conclusion of the fall meeting, is better than ever before and many local horses are now being schooled over it.

JUMPERS FOR RELMONT PARK MEETING.

New York, May 9.—W. A. Gorman, superintendent of Belmont Park track, will open the steeple-chase field at that course tomorrow for the accommodation of trainers of jumpers who wish to school their horses. The steeplechase brigade is pretty well scattered this season, but with the opening at Belmont Park many of the jumpers that raced at Belmont Park many of the jumpers that raced at Baltimore will be back here. Col. Robert Neville, good sportsman of Virginia, is gone. James W. Colt, who raced an extensive stable in other seasons, is in business abroad. J. E. Widener has deserted to the French courses and George Saportas, who was always good for a few under colors, will not race this season.

Among the jumpers at Belmont Park are those of the Canadian sportsman, Bartlett McLennan. Hogan has Agent, winner of the Champion: Lillie Hoy. Henley, a purchase from the Keene stable, and others in charge there. Veitch will bring Black Bridge, Grandpa, Nedlim and Nestor back from Pimlico, and Gwyn Tompkins. William Garth and Theodore Coles will be represented at Belmont Park. Ballacalla and Sir Wooster are the best in the stable of A. H. Higginson.

MOVE FOR LOUISIANA RACING

New Orleans, La., May 9.—The first definite move by local business men to restore racing in Louisiana was made today, 200 of them sending a petition to the Progressive Union, of which organization they are members, asking that a meeting be called to decide whether or not a special committee be sent to Baton Rouge for the purpose of advocating an amendment to the Locke law. President Werlein of the Progressive Union is opposed to racing, but has called a meeting for Thursday night. Signers of the petition are confident they will override the objections of Mr. Werlein, as every Canal street merchant has attached his name to the petition. Peter Fabacher, restaurant keeper, who secured the signatures to the petition, said today that if the foreign interests in racing were objectionable to the legislature, a stock company would be formed to purchase or lease the holdings. Mr. Fabacher claims to have been pledged sufficient money by merchants to accomplish the purpose.

WALDO OUT OF THE DERBY

HARRISON CRACK GOES LAME IN PREPARA-TION FOR LOUISVILLE FIXTURE.

Joe Morris Succeeds Son of Planudes as Public Choice-Conditions Auspicious for Churchill Downs Opening.

Churchill Downs Opening.

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—Racing enthusiasts gathered in Louisville tonight are in a state of cestasy because of the favorable conditions prevailing for a successful opening of the twenty-three-days session of sport scheduled to begin tomorrow at beautiful Churchill Downs. Never before in the history of local racing has the same keen interest been displayed. Never before have so many visiting race followers been on hand. From all sections of the country have gathered horsemen and others that go to make up la racing crowd. They have filled the principal hotels of Louisville to overflowing and every train is adding to the congestion. According to the well-informed 35,000 is a conservative estimate of the crowd that will view tomorrow the running of the thirty-sixth Kentucky Derby and after the finish acclaim the winner one of the best colts in the country. Preparations have been perfected by the management to handle even a bigger crowd, and not the slightest fear is felt that any bustle or confusion will ensue. The re-establishment of the free field is a popular move and will enable at least 15,000 spectators an opportunity for witnessing the decision of Kentucky's foremost race. Interest centers chiefly in the running of the Derby, in which the pick of western three-year-olds are engaged, and the general opinion prevails that it is an open race. Waldo, the crack eastern colt owned by C. L. Harrison, held the post of favoritism for the race until today. A few days ago the runnor circulated that he was alling with an injured foot and might not be a starter. Today it became positively known that he would be an absentee from the field of starters. The troubles of the colt began shortly after his preparation for the Derby was taken up in earnest by trainer Colston. Considerable gravel worked into his left hind foot and pulled up distressed, his owner and trainer became at first anticipated, and his owner and trainer became at first anticipated, and his owner and trainer became at first anticip Pirate. Eye White, Topland and John Furlong are not considered dangerous factors.

Everything is in thorough readiness for the opening. There are over 1,000 horses quartered at the Downs and Douglas Park. The class of horses that will engage in the racing has never been equaled here and insures splendid sport. The strictest kind of surveillance will be kept by the racing officials and no transgressions will be overlooked. The management is determined to stamp out objectionable features and will not tolerate deviations from the rules of racing. As an evidence of the association's determination to keep racing here clean and also debur those who have been placed under the ban, the entire executive committee of the New Louisville Jockey Club this morning instructed Racing Secretary Lyman H. Davis to refuse the entires of the horses W. A. Leach, Beau Brummel, Pal, The Royal Prince and any other horses that have been trained or owned by John Marklein and also Pio-Pico and other horses that have been trained or owned by John Marklein and also Pio-Pico and other horses that have been trained or owned by M. J. Daly. It was also ordered that these horses be removed from the tracks under the inrisdiction of the association and that John Marklein and M. J. Daly be denied the privileges of the grounds.

owned by M. J. Daly, It was also ordered that these horses be removed from the tracks under the jurisdiction of the association and that John Marklein and M. J. Daly be denied the privileges of the grounds.

The Marklein ruling came as a surprise, as it was thought that the horses named in the ruling, excepting Pal, would be allowed to start under the management of some other trainer, as it was definitely established that a Cincinnati druggist is the real owner. William Steuve came here yesterday to take charge of their future training.

Delegations arrived this afternoon from New York, Chicago, Memphis, Nashville and Indianapolis, Nearly 200 race followers came from Baltimore, where racing closed on Saturday.

Secretary Lyman H. Davis has received applications from F, J. Pons for twenty stalls to accommodate his racers now in the east. They are on the way to Churchill Downs.

The mutuel and auction pool system of betting has been thoroughly exploited in this section and the local public is well versed in its operation. There will be twelve machines in use tomorrow. Three will be for $10 bettors and the other nine for $5 investors. After Derby day the $5 machines will be converted into use for those desiring to wazer $2. The mutuel combination is an old-style form of betting in this city and is expected to become popular. Combinations tomorrow will only be sold on the third. fourth and fifth races. Tonight's ladications are for fair weather and a fast track. Though the course received a thorough soaking Friday and Saturday, it dried rapidly yesterday and it should be in excellent shape for tomorrow. Secretary Lyman Davis has been giving the track his personal attention and a great deal of beneficial work was done upon it today.

Waldo worked a mile in 1:50 yesterday in the presence of his owner. It was after the trial that the decision was reached to declare him from the Derby. Fighting Bob worked a mile and an eighth soon afterwards in 1:39, going the first mile in 1:44£. Topland went a mile in 1:50 yesterday

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Starter James Milton thinks that with a little more practice he will be able to achieve better starts with the walk-up system than under the standing system.

Jockey George Mountain is under contract to J. H. Woolford and probably will be attached to the stable of J. T. Ireland, in which Mr. Woolford has several horses, rather than that of John Walters. Several horses, rather than that of John Walters.

Trainer James Rowe fears that he will be unable to get any of James R. Keene's thirty two-year-olds to the post for racing at Belmont Park, and possibly not at Gravesend, because of the epidemic of influenza which is sweeping through their ranks.

For the first time in four years racing was conducted at Essex Park, Hot Springs, on Saturday. The idea prevails that there will be a revival of the theroughbred sport next season. Harness events alone were run Saturday. Oral betting was conspications, without interference.

Francis Neison, who presides at some of the Caspicuous, without interference.

Francis Nelson, who presides at some of the Canadian tracks, will be among those who will witness the running of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs today. Mr. Nelson will remain at Louisville for a few days to observe the operation of the parl-mutuel form of betting, which will probably be adopted in Canada next year.

There was no official announcement of the profit accruing from the Lexington meeting, but it is reliably stated that the association netted more that $7,000, an average of over $1,000 per day. It is safe to say that the rain of Saturday cost the association at least $1,000 in gate receipts and half that sum, if not more, in commissions from the betting.

That Fitz Herbert is getting ready to run a feet

That Fitz Herbert is getting ready to run a fast race was demonstrated at Gravesend Saturday, when the Ethelbert colt worked three-quarters is 1:15\(\frac{1}{2}\). This was the first time trainer Frank Taylor had asked Fitz Herbert to show any speed, and he was delighted with the way he responded. The big brown was full of run, and he could have gone much faster.

At the Longchamps course in Paris, France, Sunday, W. K. Vanderbilt's Bats Delight won the Prix de St. James for three-year-old filbes at a mile and an eighth. His Sir Peter finished second in the Prix de Sevres, another three-year-old second in the Prix de Sevres, another three-year-old event, for celts at the same distance. Yesterday Mr. Vanderbilt's Barbarossa won the Prix des Cavalier, $500, for three-year-olds, distance one and one-half miles, at St. Cloud, and his Defender finished second in the Prix des Iris, $600, selling, distance one and three-quarters miles. Frank Jay Gould's Ingambe finished third in the Prix des Eglantiers, $1,000, distance one and in the Prix des Iris finished second in the Prix des Iris finished second in the Prix des Iris finished second in the Prix des Iris finished third in the Prix des Eglantiers, $1,000, distance one and a quarter miles.

James E. Gaffney is delighted with the improvement shown by Barleythorpe in his only start of this season. When Mr. Gaffney bought the cold last summer it was discovered that his wind was affected. He could not run more than a half mile at top speed and was pronounced a failure. Trainer Weir, however, never lost confidence in his ability to rid the Woodshorpe colt of his aliment and assured Mr. Gaffney early this year that Barleythorpe would prove his worth. In defeating the fast filly Follie Levy last Thursday Barleythorpe showed both speed and staying power, at the same time demonstrating the patience and skill of his trainer.

J. D. B., Chicago. The parlay was a draw on any, but won on Rose Queen and Rosamo and is be paid on the latter two.

M. B., Hamilton, Ont. The matter will be reised and published some time prior to the reumption of racing at that track next winter.

W. D. K., Chicago. Bets on Busy at Pimlico stunday were draws. Bets do not follow a borse Edward R., St. Louis, Mo. Since Uralla ran un-placed the wager lost. To win any part of the bet it was necessary that Uralla should finish in the first three.

C. G., Hamilton, Ont, There is no doubt that the Gilbert Rose bet should be paid, the other proposi-tions being matters of controversy that the backer and layer should settle.

and layer should settle.

S. S., Chicago, If "Whist entry" meant anything it meant the Belmont entry with Whist to go. Whist did go and won the third race and the parlay was 2 winner. The bookmaker's claim that it lost was not correct.

E. M. N., Chicago, Your wager on Ramon Corona lost, for the simple and conclusive reason that Ra-mon Corona did not run first, second or third. Your transaction was in bookmaking betting and not in pari-mutuel betting.

C. J. C., Chicago, The Oracle place price was correctly printed, as you could easily ascertain for yourself by making an arithmetical calculation of the respective place dividends falling to backers of Oracle and Discontent respectively.

oracle and Discontent respectively.

T. J. B., Kansas City, Mo., Without testing your figures, it is sufficient to say that the printed statements of matuel returns are these made at the track and are the exact amounts there paid to holders of winning tickets on the different horses, It might be said that when there are small fractions over they, as a matter of custom, fall to the club.

Geo. W. L., Toronto, Lochiel belongs to Jones, has raced in his name since his first race, and has no connection with the Smithson horses. That he was made to appear a Smithson horse in "latest performances" was an error in transposing lines in the make-up. The bet on Smithson entry straight lost unless it was stipulated "Lochiel to go." If that was done the bet was a draw, the stipulation carrying with it that Lochiel must go as a part of the Smithson entry, which he did not.

GOSSIP FROM THE BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., May 9.—James B. Haggin arrived here flifs afternoon from New York to spend a week at Elmendorf. John Mackey is here and it is expected that Mr. Haggin will decide about the disposition of his yearlings after he has inspected them. It depends upon the legislative action at Albany whether they will be sold in this country or abroad. Several stables will ship to Canada this week, among them those of George Innes, Howard Oots and Fred Luzader.

George Innes, acting for George II. Whitner, has sold, the two-year-old, Blair Baggley, to J. P. Malone, who has the contract on jockey J. Howard.

Ed Baxter hought the two-year-olds, Red Lass and Pascagonia, both by Cesarion, from Irving II. Wheateroft and shipped them to Louisville,

These arrivals will swell the great number of horses now quartered at the two local tracks to enormous proportions, and by tomorrow morning Manager Matt J. Winn's prediction of 1,000 horses here for the meeting will have been fulfilled.  Dorante is training extra well for F. A. Forsythe this spring and trainer Colston thinks he will get him to the post for the Suburban Handicap in as good condition as he was in 1908, when a three-	May 10 to June 4 (23 days).
